

Anti-Slavery & Human Trafficking Statement 2019

WEPA UK fully embraces the aims and ideals of the Modern Slavery Act 2015 and we are confident that no unlawful practices exist within our company. We remain fully committed to ensuring that there is no slavery or human trafficking in our supply chain or in any part of our business.

During the last 12 months we have also introduced and published a Labour Standards Policy outlining our obligations towards our employees, stakeholders and the relevant communities in which we operate, and have ensured that our Labour Standards Policy is aligned to our Modern-Day Anti-Slavery Policy.

Our due diligence procedures to assess our supply chain, are proportionate to the risk of modern-day slavery. We continue to undertake periodic audits of our suppliers where risk has been identified.

Our Policy

We have reviewed our Modern-Day Slavery Policy and we are satisfied that it meets our requirements, with no amendments required at this time.

Conclusion

Slavery and Human Trafficking are serious crimes, and WEPA UK are pleased to submit this statement outlining our commitment to the aims of the MSA.

Signed,

A blue ink signature of Tony Curtis, consisting of a stylized 'T' and 'C' followed by a horizontal line.

Tony Curtis
Managing Director

A blue ink signature of Mike Docker, consisting of a stylized 'M' and 'D' followed by a horizontal line.

Mike Docker
Managing Director

May 2019